| 2. The lines were way to long for only 5 minutes of fun on the jumping things. Spent $40 and my children only got to go on 3 things - not worth the money spent. I was very disappointed this year. I purchased the wristband for my children &amp; they only went on 3 things because the lines were too long. Other children were pushing to cut in line, there was no supervision. I will NOT attend another carnival. It was not worth the money or time. | Tue, Nov 3, 2009 9:48 AM |  Find... |

| 7. The carnival was over priced and not what was expected. Half of the games didn't have anyone running them and the high school kids were way to immature to run the games. Overall not happy. I would personally rather do a normal fundraiser. At least you will have something to show for your money. | Tue, Nov 3, 2009 1:24 AM |  Find... |

| 11. Bingo &amp; cake walk needs to be in different location. A lot of money was lost with only having one going at a time. Area to small. They draw good crowds that pay extra money. | 13. Too many kids for only a few available games. No workers were around some and I seen kids stealing prizes. Others were over crowded, kids were skipping in line, pushing/shoving. when I had mentioned something the worker (male) was very disrespectful towards me and my son. He never got a turn because of all the kids running up to the table and pushing him out of the way. | Tue, Nov 3, 2009 1:16 AM |  Find... |

| 15. $10 a person was a lot of $ for some families, especially for those with multiple children. If it is going to stay this expensive, you may want to include a ticket for a drink and a hot dog to help offset the price or a cap per family. For many families times are hard and they want to support the school, but cannot afford to do so. | Tue, Nov 3, 2009 1:14 AM |  Find... |
